After the ceremony the party sat down to a wedding supper. A honeymoon trip will be taken later, when the bridegroom can be better spared from the West End forces, which are kept busy now with important improvements. Mr. Montrose has charge of the auto trucks of the West End.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS TONOPAH SCHOOLS

TOTS IN KINDERGARTEN AND FIRST GRADE FILLED WITH EXCITEMENT.

The little tots in the kindergarten are all on tiptoe with excitement and eager anticipation of a real Christmas tree in their school room. The 4-year-olds, who attend in the forenoon, will have their tree tomorrow before dinner, and the 3-year-olds, who have their daily sessions in the afternoon, will receive their favors and candy after dinner. The affair will not be of an elaborate nature, but anything that suggests old Santa Claus arouses keen interest at once among the little pupils of the kindergarten. The parents are invited to attend.

In Miss Wallace's section of the first grade a tree was decorated prettily for the enjoyment of the children.

LOCKETS WITH GOLD NUGGETS FROM MANHATTAN

N. M. Simons, the assayer from Manhattan, is here displaying a novelty—lockets containing chemically pure gold taken from Manhattan placers. The lockets are on display at Prouty's drug store and are beautiful souvenirs to send to friends outside the mining country.

N. M. Simons is one of the oldest assayers in Nye county, he having had an office here for years before the fire that consumed his possessions. Since then he has made headquarters at Manhattan and has applied for a concession at the Pan-American exposition for his novel exhibit and sale of lockets. The lockets show the gold chips encased between two glass crystals that make an excellent display for a holiday present. They are sold for $10 each.

If you bought nothing but advertised goods during the next twelve months, you'd reduce the cost and raise the standard of living—surprisingly!
